

JURISDICTION OVER CERTAIN LANDS IN THE ISLE
ROYALE NATIONAL PARK

MAY 26, 1942.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. HATCH, from the Committee on Public Lands and Surveys, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S. 2362]

The Committee on Public Lands and Surveys, to whom was referred the bill (S. 2362) relating to the jurisdiction over certain lands in the Isle Royale National Park, having considered the same, report favorably thereon without amendment and with the recommendation that the bill do pass.

A small portion of Passage Island, within the Isle Royale National Park, is used by the Coast Guard for lighthouse purposes and properly comes under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Navy. This bill simply changes the wording of the act approved March 6, 1942, which erroneously stated the lighthouse was under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Treasury, to read the "Secretary of the Navy."

RESOLUTION OVER CERTAIN LANDS IN THE ISLE
ROYALE NATIONAL PARK

MAY 20, 1912.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. Hutton, from the Committee on Public Lands and Surveys, submitted the following

REPORT

(To accompany S. 2882)

The Committee on Public Lands and Surveys, to whom was referred the bill (S. 2882) relating to the jurisdiction over certain lands in the Isle Royale National Park, having considered the same, report favorably thereon without amendment and with the recommendation that the bill do pass.

A small portion of Pigeon Island, within the Isle Royale National Park is used by the Coast Guard for light-house purposes and property comes under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Navy. This bill simply changes the wording of the act approved March 3, 1907, which erroneously stated the jurisdiction was under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Treasury, to read the "Secretary of the Navy".
